TEAL TRAVEL

Tourists are attracted to Tenganan by its unique Bali Aga culture that still holds the original traditions, ceremonies, rules of ancient Balinese and its unique village layout/ architecture. There are strict rules as to who is allowed to live in here; only those born in the village can stay here and become full members of the community. Also a strict protocol regarding marriages among the kin groups have steered the Tenganan through the genetic perils of the intermarriage.

Day 01

Arrival, unwind and relaxing at the beach

Arrival at Denpasar International Airport. Our Top 10 Best Areas to Stay in South & Central Bali would be able to the most suitable place for you. Then take it easy and unwind in the hotel after the travel and flight. For the evening, spend your quiet night at Balangan beach. The trip itself to get here will have you pass local villages and local people, giving you an apt introduction to Bali and for your days to come. During low tide, it is the perfect beach to stroll and enjoy the sunset.

Enjoying food, drinks and Kecak Dance

Start the day slowly with a lazy morning, like how it should be in Bali. Have lunch at the famous Bebek Bengil, one of the best restaurants in Bali. After the scrumptious lunch, detour off the ordinary tourist trail and go to the coffee plantation at Bali Pulina Agro Tourism. Slowly sip coffee and watch the world go by here. Towards evening, go in time for the well-known performance in Bali – the Kecak Dance. After that, have another feast at Naughty Nuri and then end the night with drinks at the Potato Head club.

Temple Tour

After only visiting both of the most famous temples in Bali, there are actually a few more that is well worth your time to check out. Since there is only one day, depending on where you start out, you can make a circle of these three beautiful temples with a hired car. An example starting from the center of Bali is first heading north to Pura Ulun Danu to see the floating temple, after that head east from there to Besakih Temple (the mother of temples) and then head back southwest to Tirta Empul temple. After this long tiring day, you may want to enjoy a good dinner at one of the best restaurants in Ubud.

Tegalalang Rice Terrace

After the scrumptious lunch, take a trip around Tegalalang rice terraces for the breathtaking view Tegalalang forms the three most splendid terraced landscapes in Ubud's shared region, with the others being in the villages of Pejeng and Campuhan..

We will eat lunch at Terrace Padi Restaurant that, is a small restaurant overlooking the rice terraces.

Mason Elephant Sanctuar- Bali

Day 05

Mount Batur and Party at the beach

On day five , we will have a tour to Mount Batur, hike and trek up this wonderful volcano for a beautiful sunrise today. Later recoup at the hotel to refresh and reenergize for the long night to Head out to Kuta beach for a party and late-night out!

Ubud's art , Spa and massage

Today is the day to soak in all of Ubud's art and culture. There is a good collection of art museums and art galleries here in Ubud. If those are not your interest, there is the popular Ubud monkey forest that you may want to check out. By then your feet and body should deserve some good spa and massage pampering.

Enjoy exciting Bali swing adventure and leisure park!

Day 07

Discover Tucad Cepung Waterfall

Tukad Cepung Waterfall is located in Bangli Regency, about 45 minutes by car from the touristy city of Ubud. Though it is possible to visit Tukad Cepung from any of the popular places to stay in Bali such as Canggu or Seminyak

Day 08

Visit the Lempuyang temple , Swing tour and cooking class

Lempuyang Tour is one of the most favorite day tours package for tourist who visit Bali Island. Visiting Lempuyang Temple also forces us to exercise because we have to climb stairs with more than 1,700 steps. Indeed, if we imagine that number is quite a lot. on the eighth day we attend a cooking class at Payok/Paon.

lempuyang temple

Lempuyang Temple History and other Sad Kahyangan Temple were founded in the 11th century AD when Mpu Kuturan accompanied King Udayana to rule Bali with his queen. Pura Sad Kahyangan was established to protect Bali so that people continue to do things that are justified according to religious teachings.
